

Unleash Your Passion for Wildlife and Fun as a Casual Frontline Sales Team Member with CaPTA Group!

Are you ready to infuse your love for wildlife into unforgettable customer experiences? CaPTA Group invites you to join our dynamic crew at Wildlife Habitat, the ultimate wildlife hotspot in Queensland. As a Casual Frontline Sales Team Member, you'll embark on an exhilarating journey to create extraordinary moments for our cherished visitors.

About Us:

At CaPTA Group, we're not just a company – we're a close-knit tribe driven by our shared passion for wildlife and unwavering commitment to excellence. With a strong focus on sustainability and a reputation for delivering unmatched guest interactions, we're pioneers in our field. Join our lively and community-driven family, spanning multiple exciting ventures.

Role Highlights:

As a Casual Frontline Sales Team Member at Wildlife Habitat, you'll be the radiant personality that sets the stage for our guests' incredible adventures. Your vibrant spirit, excellent communication skills, and dedication to exceptional service will shine as you connect with visitors from all walks of life.

Key Responsibilities:

- Radiate warmth and provide guests with an informative and delightful experience.
- Master precise transactions and cash handling while overseeing reception and retail areas.
- Harmonize seamlessly with fellow team members to ensure flawless operations.
- Capture priceless memories as an ace photographer (prior photography experience is a bonus!).
- Embrace a flexible seven-day schedule, with shifts ranging from 0730 am to 6pm.

The Ideal Trailblazer:

To excel in this role, you should embody these qualities and qualifications:

- A heart brimming with wildlife love and a contagious knack for sharing it.
- Exceptional at delivering top-tier customer service and thriving in a fast-paced environment.
- Proficient in cash handling, multitasking, and juggling administrative duties.
- A team player extraordinaire with a magic touch for connecting with diverse individuals.
- Bursting with energy, self-motivation, and a go-getter attitude when it comes to sales.
- Local area know-how is a plus, and prior similar role experience is a bonus – don't worry, we'll ensure you're well-prepared!

Perks That Await You:

At Wildlife Habitat, you'll feast on a buffet of ongoing training, a supportive community of colleagues, and the chance to be part of a clan that champions sustainability and community bonding. We're committed to Equal Employment Opportunity, embracing diversity and ensuring everyone feels at home.
